YANKS AND TANKS DRIVE FOE BACK

WITH THE AMERICANS IN FRANCE, Aug. 31.-American officers and men are loud in their praise of the new model light tanks which the French have been assist ing their operations. These tanks helped the Americans greatly sweeping over Von Boehm's elab. erately consolidated advance trench system between Savigny and Juvigny, along the Juvigny plateau.

The Germans tried in vain to check the tanks with their newest anti-tank rifles, a powerful gun which penetrates thirteen-skiteenths of an inch of steel at 220 yards.

Two of these thanks caught free the fielding the fielding and during the fighting yesterday, and the crews were rescued by khakielad Americans who were advancing in conjunction with them.

conjunction with them.
In capturing the Chavigny-Juvigny narrow-gauge agilway line the Americans were forced to sprint across 300 yards of bare, open plateau, which was raked by the fire of the enemy. After this heroic dash they occupied a small embankment only ten feet from the Germans, who will be fire the enemy's front yesterday. The

Word "German" Cut From Cornerstone Of Maryland Church

HAGERSTOWN, Md., Aug. 31 .-The word German on the cornerstone of the German Baptist Brethren Church, of this city, has been cut from the stone.

This procedure followed action on a petition from the personal workers' Sunday school class of that church to the trustees.

In 1909 the name was changed to Church of the Brethern, but the name on the cornerstone had

"The French and American soldiers get along beautifully," declared Gibbons. "An American captain who went over with the first contingent recently explained to me how it happened. He says we think the French are crasy, and the French know we are crasy. A Frenchman gave a description of the marinis that is widely quoted. Those marines, he said, "they damn the weather, they damn the food, they damn the war, they damn la belle France, but damn it—they fight."
